COMPILED AND ARRANGED

NEW YORK:
ORVILLE A. ROORBACH,
12 VESEY STREET.

OCTOBER, 1852.¹

ENTERED according to Act of Congress, in the year 1852,

By ORVILLE A. ROORBACH,

In the Clerk's Office of the District Court for the Southern District of New York.

Baker, Godwin & Co., Printers,
1 Spruce St., N. Y.

INTRODUCTION.

THIS Edition of "The Bibliotheca Americana" contains the whole of the Original Work published in 1849, the Supplement published in 1850, also some Two Thousand Titles of Books then published and not contained in either of these two Works, together with such Publications as have appeared since, up to the present time, making in all over 24,000 Titles.

There are, undoubtedly, many Books included in the List that might have been omitted without detriment, but as the Work is intended as a Manual of Reference for the Trade, I have inserted all that came within my search, not knowing where to make the stopping point, as the very Books my judgment might exclude would frequently be sought for; and to the Bookseller it is very satisfactory to let his customer know such a Book has been published, even if he has to give the frequently convenient answer, "out of print."

As a general rule I have given the original date of publication of all works relating to History, Voyages and Travels, notwithstanding many of them which are stereotyped bear the imprint of the present year.

I have made no separate Classification of Biography as heretofore, but have incorporated it in the general Alphabet, under the head of the subject treated of, and not under the Author's name.

Law Books are classed separately, and will be found at the end of the Volume.

The List of Periodicals is taken from the last Census of the United States, with some additions.

It is not my intention ever to print another edition of the present Book, but purpose continuing the work at intervals by Supplement, containing the New Publications and such Books as may change Publishers.

NEW YORK, October, 1852.

NORTON'S LITERARY GAZETTE

AND

Publishers' Circular;

A Monthly Record of Works published in America, England, Germany, and France; with a Review of the Current Literature of the day; Contents of Leading American and English Periodicals, Announcements of New Books, &c.; issued on the 15th of each Month, at $1 per annum.

NOTICES OF THE PRESS.

"Norton's Literary Gazette has, by the spirit and enterprise of the publisher, gradually grown from small beginnings into a monthly sheet of considerable size and compass, handsomely printed, and full of useful matter. It is a very serviceable journal for libraries, colleges, and all literary institutions"—Christian Review

"Norton's Literary Gazette, is a most invaluable publication to all persons engaged in literary pursuits. We confidently recommend it to all who wish to obtain an inkling of literary matters."—New York Tribune.

"Norton's Literary Gazette is a publication to which we desire to call attention, for its remarkable typographical beauty, and the fullness of its information concerning the Book Trade. It furnishes an ample guide to all interested in the subjects to which it is exclusively devoted."—Christian Register.

"Norton's Literary Gazette. An elegant quarto Journal, under this title, visits us regularly every month, and has already gained a high place in our opinions for the extent of its bibliographical intelligence, the general candor of its book-notices, and the comprehensions of its intelligence concerning every department of the literary world. It is quite a vade mecum to the bookseller, librarian, and literary men of every description. Its circulation has already reached three thousand copies, and is rapidly increasing."—Literary Gazette.

"This is the cheapest and best guide to the literary man, in the purchase of books, which can be had in any quarter. Every work published in the United States, England, France, and Germany, is mentioned, with the size, price, and name of the publisher. Among the notices of books are monthly indexes of all magazines published in this country and England. No scholar or reading man, or even amateur in books, should be without this cheap compendium"—De Bow's Review.

"Norton's Literary Gazette is not only a voluminous but a very valuable work, which gives a complete list of all works published, and also the retail prices,—a very valuable feature. Mr. Norton acts as agent for the purchase of libraries; and, from an acquaintance of twelve years, we know him to be in all respects admirably calculated for this business. His paper evinces his energy and abilities, and is extremely useful to all who wish to keep up with the times."—Newark Daily Advertiser.
